

Titel / Title	Ettore Bugatti
Auteur(s) / Author(s)	W.F. Bradley
Uitgever / Publisher	Motor Racing Publications
ISBN nr.
Beschrijving / Description	This book is more or less an unofficial biography of Bugatti. Bradley was a British motoring journalist who wrote many articles on Bugatti cars. This book is far from objective and contains a lot of myths and errors. However, it still is good to read. The titles and covers varied a little between prints, otherwise it is the same book.

Titel / Title Auteur(s) / Author(s) Uitgever / Publisher ISBN nr. Beschrijving / Description	L'épopée Bugatti L'Ebé Bugatti Editions de la Table Ronde & l'Action Automobile et Touristique This book is written by Ettore's eldest daughter, L'Ebé. Like the book by Bradley, it makes interesting reading but it should be remembered that it contributes to myth building. It isn't all objective, but the story is told by someone from within the family and surroundings of Ettore. It focusses more on the person of Ettore and the history he created, then on the more business side of the story.

With 320+ pages, fully illustrated in colour where possible, this book is an essential reference document for any Bugatti library. There have been a lot of registers published the last 10 years (though we're still waiting for the French register!), and this is a very interesting one, following a few earlier publications on Bugattis in Australasia. Still more cars, and new photographs. Australia is different as a lot of Bugattis, also early Brescia's, were modified for racing, many photo's (like the ones below) show these successfully and less successfully modified cars.

In this case our author carries it to a whole new level. He bought a very sad example of a Type 44 from Jean De Dobbeleer of Brussels, and for the next half century dragged it all over the U.S. The story he tells is worthy of "Ripley's Believe it or Not." He had been warned by others of the potential obstacles that lay ahead, but was so mesmerized by the marque that he plunged ahead into a world of frustration. He takes you on a long ride to meet the interesting people he met along the way, and to share in the joy and heartbreak of trying to resurrect his dream Bugatti. It's one heck of a ride!

Titel / Title Auteur(s) / Author(s) Uitgever / Publisher ISBN nr. Beschrijving / Description	THE K. & K. BUGATTI REGISTER Helge Hauk & others CeAuto ISBN 978320004879 Among a lot of register books published by national Bugatti Clubs a big white area has been closed: THE K&K BUGATTI REGISTER covers all regions of the former K&K Austro–Hungarian Monarchy, that means a major part of what today is called Central Europe (Austria, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, Poland, Slovenia, Croatia and Bosnia-Herzegovina). The authors have traced and researched – as far as it was still possible now – all classic Bugattis until today (more than 300 cars!). The first Bugattis came into the country, when Austria still was an empire, and also all racing pilots as well as owners of the Bugattis up to the 1950s or 1960s were children of the Monarchy. This book has been authored by 10 authors has 1040 pages, weighs 4.64 kg and it is published in two volumes, hard-cover with slipcase. It contains a lot of never before published photos and documents of private sources.
